

Our Insurance Services – Terms of Business

1. About coverbaloo

coverbaloo Ltd, of 2 Horizon Court, Audax Close, Clifton Moor, York, YO30 4RB, is an insurance intermediary. We are part of the Cavere Group of companies which was established in 2008 to provide products and services to the insurance industry. In seeking insurance through coverbaloo Ltd, you agree to these terms of business.

2. Who regulates us?

coverbaloo Ltd is an appointed representative of Cavere Ltd which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority under Financial Services Register number 517325. You can check this on the FCA's register by visiting the FCA's website, www.fca.org.uk, or by contacting the FCA on 0800 111 6768.

3. Our service to you

You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us. We may ask you some questions to narrow down the selection of products and any options available from the products we offer. You will then need to make your own informed decision about how to proceed and if the product is suited to your needs.

In arranging your insurance, we act on your behalf. Cavere Ltd (the scheme administrator) will collect your premium and administer the product, and as such they act as agents for the insurers.

4. Our products

Our Home Insurance policy is underwritten by Royal & Sun Alliance Insurance Limited.

Our Home Emergency policy is underwritten by Ageas Insurance Ltd.

5. What will we charge you for our services?

We do not charge a fee for arranging your insurance. Cavere Ltd pays commission to coverbaloo for selling the products. This means that a percentage of the premium you pay is given to coverbaloo Ltd. Our staff are salaried and they may receive a bonus based on how coverbaloo performs overall, but they do not receive any commission or other benefit from providing you with these services.

6. Disclosure of information

It is important that you understand that any information, statements, or answers made by you to us, or your insurer, are your responsibility and must be correct. If the questions are not answered correctly, the policy may be cancelled or claims may be rejected or not fully paid. The answers and information given when seeking new insurance, amending, or renewing an existing policy might influence the insurer in deciding whether or not to accept the risk, what the terms of the policy should be, or what premium to charge.

You are advised to keep copies of documentation sent to or received from us for your own protection. Please do consult us if you are in doubt on any aspect. The disclosure of information not only applies at commencement and renewal of your policy, but also at any time during the period of insurance.

7. Awareness of policy terms

When a policy is issued, you are strongly advised to read it carefully, as it is that document, the schedule, and any certificate of insurance that is the basis of the insurance contract you have purchased. If you are in doubt over any of the policy terms and conditions, please seek our advice promptly.

8. Charges and Fees

We will not charge you any administration fees when you amend or cancel a policy. Making a change to your policy may affect the amount of premium you have to pay.

9. Client money rules

The FCA rules are designed to protect you in the event that an insurance intermediary fails or is unable to transfer:

- a. any premium money it has received from you to the insurer; or
- b. return premium monies that it has received from the insurer to you.

We are governed by strict rules pertaining to client money, set out by the FCA. Where the scheme administrator holds monies in a client bank account, they may earn interest on monies held, which will be retained by them.

The scheme administrator acts as agents for the insurer for the collection of premiums and refunds of premiums. This means that premiums are treated as being received by the insurer when received in our bank account and that any premium refund is treated as received by you when it is actually paid over to you.

10. Claims

We do not administer, process, or make decisions on claims. If you need to make a claim on your policy, you should contact the insurer in accordance with the details provided in your policy documentation.

11. Customer protection information

It is our intention to provide you with a high level of customer service at all times. If there are occasions when we do not meet your standards, please contact our Complaints Manager either verbally or in writing, who will take details of your concerns. We will acknowledge in writing, advising you of who is dealing with your concerns, and attempt to address your concerns within three working days. Under FCA guidelines we have up to eight weeks from receipt of your complaint to issue a final response, but we endeavour to issue a final response within four weeks. If our investigations take longer, we will write to you within four weeks to explain our position and provide timescales for a full response. If we cannot satisfy your complaint you may be entitled to refer it to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

You can contact the Financial Ombudsman Service at:

Exchange Tower, Harbour Exchange Square, London, E14 9SR

Tel: 030 01239123 or 0800 0234567

Web: www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk

12. Cooling off period

We will give you enough information and help so you can make an informed decision before you make a final commitment to buy your insurance policy. However, you will have fourteen days to change your mind and cancel the insurance contract from the date you receive the policy documentation.

13. Peace of mind

Our obligations are covered by the Financial Services Compensation scheme (FSCS). If we are unable to meet our obligations, you could be entitled to compensation from this scheme, depending on the type of insurance and the circumstances at the time.

Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available on the FSCS website: www.fscs.org.uk.
